

Gun Violence Recovery | State Presidents and State Executive Directors

To do	Where to find it, contacts, etc.	Complete	Assigned to	Next steps, follow up, dates, n/a, etc.
1 Arrange systematic check-ins with local leaders, as necessary.
2 Assist the local association with communication needs, as necessary.
3 Coordinate support from NEA and other state affiliates.
4 Connect with organizations championing civil rights and racial and social justice; countering gun violence; supporting parents, family members, higher education partners, and spouses; and promoting student health. Discuss approaches to and mutual opportunities for recovery-related support in the short-, medium-, and long- term. Communicate with the local association about potential initiatives and opportunities.

Gun Violence Recovery | State Presidents and State Executive Directors

To do	Where to find it, contacts, etc.	Complete	Assigned to	Next steps, follow up, dates, n/a, etc.
5 Assess state protocols and responses to the incident; revise protocols, as necessary; identify learnings and opportunities to enhance future responses.
6 Connect with organizations championing civil rights and racial and social justice; countering gun violence; supporting parents, family members, higher education partners, and spouses; and promoting student health. Discuss approaches to and mutual opportunities for support in response to the incident in the short-, medium-, and long-term. If working with state-level organizations, communicate as appropriate with the state affiliate about potential initiatives and opportunities.
7 Revise or develop, as needed, model gun- and safety-related collective bargaining language and/or administrative language.				